

Order TV Stations To Produce Tapes

A court order to produce all film tape and voice recordings of attorney Dean A. Andrews Jr. has been directed to the news directors of three television stations.

The order is the latest in a series of moves leading up to the Aug. 9 trial of Andrews, charged with perjury in Kennedy assassination investigation testimony before the Orleans Parish grand jury.

The order, signed by Criminal District Court Judge Bernard J. Bagert, orders the news directors of WWL-TV, WDSU-TV and WVUE-TV to turn over the material to the district attorney's office at 10 a.m. Friday.

The order was requested by Assistant District Attorney James L. Alcock.

In the application for the writ, Alcock said that the film tape and voice recordings were necessary in the preparation of the state's case against Andrews.
